

OUR THEATRES NEXT WEEK.

First Production of "The Tallman" in America.

Good Programmes at the Various Vaudeville Houses.

"The Tallman" will have its first American production Monday night, at Hammerstein's Manhattan Opera-House, and with it will be presented what is said to be a very gorgeous ballet, entitled "Versailles." Rehearsals have been going on vigorously for a long time, and it is expected that the first performance will be a smooth one. The cast of "The Tallman" will include Max Freeman, Robert Dunbar, J. Aldrich, Libby, Richard F. Carroll, Edna Ryan, Edgar Smith, Mr. Carleton, Miss Bianca, Lesaut, who will make her first appearance in America, Miss Lulu Hesse, Miss Cheridah Simpson, Miss Harriet Williams, Miss Genevieve Hill, and Miss Genevieve Butler. The action of the opera takes place in France during the reign of Louis XV., and the scenes show the old chateau, an enchantment at Berry, the Palace of Louis XV. at Versailles, and the gardens at Versailles. June 22, owing to the elaborate preparations for which the opera itself has been going on, the opera will be postponed without any real garden attraction. "The Tallman" has been presented in London, and has had a great hit in the English metropolis.

The one thousandth performance of "Robin Hood" will take place at the Garden Theatre Monday night. The house will be very handsomely decorated throughout, and the composer of the opera, Reginald De Koven, will conduct the orchestra. "Robin Hood" continues to pack the Garden Theatre. The public will simply have nothing to say about it, but it will have to wait until the public wears of "Robin Hood."

At Tony Pastor's Theatre next week the attractions will include Frank Bush, Miss Lily Burand, in a number of new songs, George F. Murphy, the "Dutch comedian," and his partner, Miss Kitty Kurland; Billy Carter and his band, Blockman and Burns, George and Paddy Patterson, in a triple horizontal bar act; Frank Riley, the wing dancer; Leonora, the female contortionist; Al Durney, the "winded wizard of the air," and Jennings and O'Brien, in a sketch called "Teaching the Ladies Self-Defense."

Miss Lottie Colliard, a descriptive vocalist and dancer, will make her first appearance in this country at Koster & Bial's concert hall Monday night, and Charles Hayden, a mimic and humorist, from the London Empire, will also make his American debut at this establishment. Other attractions will be the Borani brothers, Ada Lundberg, Miss Juanita Bardoux, in French and Spanish songs and dances; M. Dufour and Miss Hanley, in a sketch called "Paula's Dilemma."

De Wolf Hopper will enter upon the eighth week of his engagement at the Broadway Theatre Monday night, when "Panorama" will be presented for the fifth time. There will be souvenirs, of course, and very handsome ones, according to managerial promise. "Panorama" is doing very well, and will undoubtedly be continued during the rest of Hopper's engagement, which ends Sept. 3. The cast is the same as it was on the opening night.

Attractions at the Imperial Music Hall next week will include Miss Eunice Vance, Harry Le Clair, the female impersonator; Mason and Raiston, the scenic "one and one-half" comedians; Ella Wessner, Capitola Forrest, the high kicker; the Dillon brothers and Kohn, the Japanese juggler; Miss Lottie Gilson will take her vacation for the next two weeks, and she will be missed. The new cooling apparatus at this house has given complete satisfaction. Vanderlip and Adair have been engaged for the Madison Square Roof Garden. Miss Adair, a very good girl, who is said to execute a "back flip" with considerable grace. The acrobatic Ruffords, who have just returned from a trip to Russia, will make their appearance at the Roof Garden Monday night. The other artists will be: Hagen, the "human corkcrew"; Frl. von Baeger, Ruby Brooks, the banjoist; Horace Randall, Frank Lawson and the Muhlenbergs.

The throwing open of the Madison Square Garden amphitheatre, roof garden and tower to the public for the price of one admission has proved very successful, a wise one. There will be an excellent concert in the amphitheatre tomorrow night.

Adeline Purvis Orlt remains at the Eden Musee, where she does a serpentine dance on a globe and some very clever tricks. On A. Adams, the very clever Parolian illusionist, is also there with a number of new feats. Lizzie Perkin and Gubal and Greville contribute their wonderful mind-reading work. They have become quite an institution at this house. Danko Gabor's concerts are always deservedly popular.

well as ever at the American Theatre, and those who thought that Manager French showed lack of judgment in putting on such an expensive production before the beginning of the regular season are telling a different story today. The great steeplechase scene at Aintree goes better than ever, and the applause every night is incessant. In the cast Leonard Hayne and Miss Helen Dauvray have made the principal hits. The American Theatre's roof garden will open Monday evening with a variety performance. The artists will be: Pro Entomologist, a strong man; Maggie Cline, the "Irish bull"; the Franz family of five, Miss Alvia, a French juggler and rival of Cinqueval, and Lady Mansel. Three elevators will carry people to the roof garden, and one elevator will admit both to the theatre and garden. The resort will be decorated with handsome plants.

"A Texas Steer" succeeds the Hinchrich grand opera company at the Grand Opera House. It is rather a violent change, but the Grand Opera House people do not mind that. "A Texas Steer" is one of the best things that Hoyt has written, and it is good at any time and at any theatre. Tim Murphy will play the part of Thackerick Brander, an entertaining Texan, who goes to Congress. The cast is made up of very clever people.

At Palmer's Theatre "492" is doing an excellent business. When the weather gets very warm, the house may close, but the Grand Opera House people do not mind that. ## BARNETT-DIXON GO TO-NIGHT

The Boxing Entertainment at the Academy of Music.

Annual Tournament of the Orange A. C. Cyclers Next Saturday.

To-night, at the Academy of Music, there will be a boxing entertainment that ought to warm the hearts of sporting enthusiasts. Seven bouts are scheduled, and they will be given under the direction of Tom O'Rourke, the astute manager of George Dixon. O'Rourke knows just how to run an affair of this kind and get the greatest amount of enjoyment out of it for the spectators. Three of to-night's bouts should prove rattling contests from the send-off. They are Dolly Lyons vs. "Muldoo's Pickaninny," at 115 pounds; Joe Walcott, champion of light-weight of England, against Mike Harris, a clever New Yorker; George Dixon vs. Jerry Barnett, at 118 pounds. The latter is expected to put the audience right on edge. Barnett made a show of Billy Murphy, of Australia, some months ago, and he is no longer hiding his light under a Fourth Ward bushel. His friends do not expect Dixon will succumb, but they hope to see Jerry do some warm work that he will make out of danger. Barnett is in a rather bad way, but he is expected to win.

The fire at Coney Island to-day will in no way affect the big triple event at the Coney Island Athletic Club, which is arranged for next Thursday evening. This will include bouts between Joe Butler and Jim Daley, Mike Leonard and George Reynolds and Billy Ernst and Billy Vernon. All the elements combined have no terrors for the enterprising members of the Club, which prides itself on always being on hand for business at the old stand, no matter what may occur.

The Orange Athletic Club cyclists will hold their annual bicycle tournament on Saturday afternoon next on the newly constructed track at the Orange Oval. Prizes valued at $1,000 are offered and fine sport is promised. Among the tracks who are expected to compete in the races are: Willie Windle, the one-mile champion of America and holder of many records; John S. Johnson, of Minneapolis, who holds the world's record of 1m. 56s. for a mile; Hoyland Smith, of New Bedford, Mass., the great road racer; Harvey C. Wheeler, of Orange; W. W. Taxis, of Philadelphia; H. J. Hall, Jr., and Fred Hawley, of Brooklyn; J. R. Hazleton, of Rockaway; C. W. Murphy, holder of the record over the Irvington-Milburn twenty-five-mile course; W. F. Murphy, A. B. Rich, George Smith and W. S. Campbell, of New York. More than three hundred entries have already been received, and the tournament will be the greatest event of its kind ever held in this vicinity.

Capt. E. J. Giannini, of the New York Athletic Club, will meet Walter Goodkind, of the Lone Stars, in a mile single scull race over the course off Travers Island this afternoon. A great deal of interest is manifested in the event, which is the outcome of a challenge sent by the New Yorks. Goodkind won the previous single race at the Harlem Regatta, Giannini, who started, being unable to finish after his shell broke.

The finals in the singles at the New York Tennis Club tournament were won by W. Gordon Parker, who beat Stephen C. Milliet in three out of five sets of an exciting struggle. The scores were 1-6, 6-4, 7-5, 6-4.

Fred Morris, Billy Madden's cyclone, has posted $100 forfeit at the Police Gazette office, and has called a challenge to George W. Atkinson of Sporting Life, London, offering to fight Dick Burge, Tom Williams or any other man of his weight for $250 a side.

Steve Brodie has deposited $1,000 to match Billy McCarthy, the Australian, to fight Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," within two weeks from July 23.

Con Rordan, the heavy weight pugilist of California, offers to meet Joe Goddard before he returns to Australia, for any reasonable price.

A glove fight, Police Gazette rules, has been arranged between Billy O'Brien, of Brooklyn, and Harry Hight, of this city, for $250 a side and a purse of $500 on July 12, the fight to take place within fifty miles of New York.

The Finishers' and Bookbinders' Unions have agreed to assist each other in organizing the bookbinders' shops in this city. Local Assembly 4,204, K. of L., requests mechanics and laborers to stay away from Wabash, Ind., where wages have been reduced all around.

Several labor unions in Baltimore have been accused by the Musical Union of that city of having engaged non-union musicians for the parade on Labor Day. Of the seventy-five Philadelphia bosses whose union planters went on strike for higher wages, fifty-seven have granted an advance from 40 to 45 cents per hour.
